- 7. Relationship of Parties. It is understood, agreed, and intended by the Parties that in performing this Agreement, the Parties are each separately and independently carrying out their respective business, that this Agreement does not and shall not create or constitute a partnership or joint venture between them, or a principal/agent relationship and that each is and shall be as to each other an independent contractor and not an employer/employee.
- 8. Limitation. As separate consideration for the services to be performed by TIOB under this Agreement, the Parties have agreed to limit TIOB’s liability to Customer in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph. In no event will TIOB be liable for any special, incidental, indirect, exemplary or consequential damages (including but not limited to loss of Profits) or for any amount greater than the actual price or fee paid to TIOB by Customer for the services rendered pursuant to this Agreement regardless of whether such damages are based in contract or tort, even if advised of the possibility of such damages.
- 9. Inconsistent Terms and Conditions. Any term or condition inconsistent with those stated herein which may appear on any written document, purchase order, or other like instrument, shall be void and shall be superceded by the terms and conditions set forth herein.

- 11. Insurance. TIOB maintains the following types of insurance coverage, in commercially reasonable amounts: (i) workers’ compensation insurance; (ii) commercial general liability insurance; (iii) commercial umbrella liability insurance in excess of the general liability; and (iv) professional liability or errors & omissions insurance or product quality insurance.

Customer is responsible for obtaining and maintaining in full force and effect during the term of this Agreement the following insurance coverage: (i) workers' compensation insurance with satisfactory limits as required by the California Labor Code covering all personnel furnished by Customer during the performance of this Agreement; (ii) comprehensive general liability ("CGL") insurance, issued by a company admitted to do business in California and with an A.M. Best rating of A:VII or better, or equivalent self-insurance. CGL insurance coverage (personal injury and property damage) shall be not less than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) combined single limit per occurrence, covering liability or claims for any personal injury, including death, to any person and/or damage to the property of any person arising from the acts or omissions of Customer or any officer, agent, employee of Customer under this Agreement. Customer's obligations and its release of TIOB from liability under this Agreement shall not be affected by Customer's breach of its obligation to provide such insurance. Under no circumstances shall TIOB have any obligation to insure Customer's wines, and Customer shall indemnify, defend and hold TIOB harmless, for Customer's failure to obtain adequate insurance for Customer's own wines as required under this Agreement.

Customer shall cause each insurance policy obtained by it to provide that the insurance company waives all right of recovery by way of subrogation against either Party in connection with any damage covered by any policy. TIOB shall not be liable to Customer for any damage caused by fire or any of the risks insured against under any insurance policy required by this Agreement. If any insurance policy cannot be obtained with a waiver of subrogation without payment of an additional fee, Customer shall pay such additional premium or otherwise obtain a replacement policy meeting the requirements of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Customer, by executing this Agreement, expressly waives any and all rights of subrogation and those of its insurance carrier against TIOB for any loss to Customer's property.

Customer shall provide to TIOB evidence of coverage an endorsement from the insurance provider naming TIOB, its officers, employees, and agents as additional insureds. Either copies of the original policies or certificates of insurance thereof shall be placed with TIOB, and the insurance carrier shall be required to notify TIOB in writing thirty (30) days prior to any cancellation or substantial modification of the policy.

- 16. No Assignment. This Agreement may not be assigned or transferred, whether voluntarily or by operation of law, in whole or in part, by either of the parties, without the prior written consent of the other. Any purported assignment or transfer without such consent shall be null and void at the option of the nonassigning Party.
